630 Riverside Dr. Update S. Donohoe comments that the same potential buyer still expresses general interest in the Belding-Corticelli property, without any firm commitment. It is still assumed that the interested buyer is waiting to see how the 929 site progresses. Donohoe also confirms that the fence around the site has been mostly repaired, but a section was left down as an access point for local fishermen who would otherwise pull down more extensive sections to access the river in that spot.
