Citizens' Comments

1. Donald Pimental, 40 Starr Road, explained that he and some of his neighbors are requesting a meeting with Town officials to have them come to Starr Road to see what is happening there. He further asked who owns Starr Road and if it is a legal road; the road is 50 feet wide and then narrows. He stated that there were originally five (5) houses and that none were to be developed beyond his.
2. Al Landry read from an editorial in the April 18, 2014 Norwich Bulletin about Senate Bill 405, An Act concerning Public Hearings on Sub-Division Applications and stated that passage of the bill means a loss of citizens rights.
3. Jayson Livingstone, 55 Starr Road, stated that the proposed parking lot is within eye sight of his house and he has issues with the security of the lot.
4. Gail Livingstone, 5 Starr Road, stated that there are plans in the Selectman's Office for the Starr Road development. She stated they had not received any notification and that if her husband had not gone to the Selectman's Office they would not have know what was happening.
5. Jim Pimental, 30 Starr Road, stated that the dust and stones from the unpaved road are terrible. The pavement only goes to his house and no further.
