

Thompson Recreation

Town Wide Egg Hunt Clues

1. A community place where things are for sharing
Volunteers who help out, show that they're caring
Resources, food, holiday programs, senior services define
How lives touched, a loving hand up, show we all can shine!
2. You can always come here to seek and find
Numerous stories of various kinds
Seniors and children, parents and youth
All can enjoy reading – that's the truth!
3. A place of licenses for marriage, dog, or fishing
Get a permit for your house or building
Pay your taxes, get a ballot for voting when
A town decision has to be made – led by your Selectmen.
4. This Society began in 1968 to preserve history
In our town's first public library – there's a mystery
You can visit this place on Sundays 'till noon
A portrait of Ellen Larned hangs in its room.
5. People come from afar to our small town
To hear the drone of fast cars, watch them go round
Bright colored racecars whiz by at high speed
Wanting to be the fastest to gain the lead.
6. Nestled on 250 acres in Thompson (east)
This farm has a peculiar animal with fleece
Turkeys and peacock, pigs, and emu
The numerous alpaca's await for you!
7. On this farm, the cows are not purple
Just lots of lavender growing in a circle
An a –"mazing" place to get lost in
Or eat delicious ice cream that drips down your chin.
8. Come to "fellowship" with friends – that's cool
Or you can learn to swim at the indoor pool
In summer, the camp has many things to do
This school is waiting for you.
9. In this part of town once stood a one-room schoolhouse
Little children still come to play, run and happily shout
On a colorful playscape of red and yellow bright
The Wagher and Pompeo Road signs are in sight.