Absent: Chair Steve Bordua, Kimberly Prescott

3. Minutes review: January 29, 2020- Motion C. Antos seconded by R. L’Heureux to approve the minutes of December 4, 2019 carried unanimously. C. Antos abstained from voting as she was not present last month.

4. Financial Reports
A. General Fund Budget Report- Not much has changed since last month, the expenses were finalized with the bonfire, the remaining money in the senior citizens column is being used for scheduled luncheons and programs.
B. Miscellaneous Revolving Account Report- This account is currently at $2,436.63 with the balance changing weekly. There is a current surplus showing for basketball but that is not yet including paying for referees or awards. Purchases are starting to be made for summer camp 2020 and $1,500 has come in this past month from summer camp 2019 past due amounts.
C. Fund Balance- The annual software charge and Youth Center bad debt were added to the fund balance, it is currently showing a program balance of $9,961.82.

5. Director’s Report
A. General Report- Yoga is going well, there is a current ad in the paper and a good response has come in from that, Senior Craft dipped in attendance in January but has gone back up in numbers with 11 participants in February and the max of 12 for March with 4 on a wait list. The Community Art show is on April 1st, there are 96 pieces registered so far. March 4th is the Ask Me Anything event at the Thompson Library. There is a trip coming up in March to the Boston Flower Show with 33 people signed up for that so far.

6. New Business
A. CME Sign Review- Rec Commission is coming up with sign placement ideas for park and recreational places within town. A list was presented in writing of what has been thought of so far, C. Antos added the Mechanicsville park/playground to this list. Other commissions/committees are coming up with sign ideas for other points of interest in town such as businesses and restaurants.

7. Other from the Commission/Staff- Wayne Barber was in attendance of this meeting, he is interested in joining the Recreation Commission. He spoke a little about himself, he has been a resident of Thompson for the past 20 years and is the current Thompson Little League President. His application will go to the selectman for approval. L. Munshower stated that commission member Donna Godzik has resigned from her position, B. Monahan mentioned that there were no more doggy bags available at the Riverside Park softball field, L. Munshower will let DPW know this. L. Munshower also looked into the ordinance to change the commission membership from 9 members down to 7 with 2 alternates which will change the quorum requirement from 5 down to 4. She is going to write up a proposed change that the commission can vote on at the March meeting and then it will go on to the selectmen for approval before going to a town meeting for final approval.
