

NOTICE TO THOMPSON RESIDENTS

TRANSFER STATION PERMIT RENEWAL REMINDER

Your current permit will expire on October 31, 2019.

Transfer Station renewal notices were mailed out to all current permit holders on October 1, 2019.
The new permit year begins November 1, 2019 and expires on October 31, 2020.

Note: Permit Fee information is available in the Transfer Station brochure and on the Town Website.

Please return your notice and the applicable fee in the mail, and we will mail you your new permit, or come into the Thompson Tax Office during our normal business hours to receive your new sticker(s). All checks should be made payable to the Town of Thompson.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this notice.

Note that "One Day Permits" may now be purchased at the Transfer Station.

Enforcement Notice

All Transfer Station Regulations will be strictly enforced.

Please remember that the "Multiple Permit Sticker Program" affecting landlords and others who regularly collect trash for themselves and other households (Relatives, Neighbors & Friends) is in effect, and will be strictly enforced by the Transfer Station Staff.

Spot checks on Vehicles are done randomly during the course of the year.
Violators may be subject to fines and revocation of permits.

Mission Statement

At the Thompson Tax Collector's Office, our vision is to exceed your expectation by providing all of our customers with a knowledgeable, professional and courteous staff. We pledge to assist you with the collection of your Real Estate, Motor Vehicle and Personal Property Taxes, as well as the processing of Sewer Use Taxes, Transfer Station Permits, and Building Fees.
